

2006 CHARDONNAY

ACCOLADES

Wine Spectator “Riesling Takes the Lead: Australian Whites Deliver Quality and Diversity” - December 15, 2007

85 POINTS & TOP VALUE

“There are plenty of easy-drinking options in the buy-by-the-case price range. Alice White Chardonnay South Eastern Australia 2006 (85 points, $7) offers a spicy, almost Viognier-like character.”

- H. Steiman

Newsday “Thirteen Enjoyable Wines Under $15” - October 31, 2007

“Uncomplicated, tropical-fruit, bargain refresher from Australia.”

- P. Gianotti

Wine Spectator “Australia White” - October 15, 2007

85 POINTS

“Soft and ripe, with a spicy, almost Viognier-like character to the pear and orange flavors. Drink now.”

- H. Steiman

The Colorado Wine News [Denver, CO] - October 1, 2007

BEST BUY

“...has a nose of lemon, cream, oak and alcohol before thin lemon and oak flavors which finish long and clingy and narrow at the front and broad at the back with the addition of spice at the sides and back.”

- H. Baer

Hi-Riser Broward [Pompano Beach, FL] “Imported Wines Worth Talking About” - August 2, 2007

“This wine is a happy exception to the basic rule that inexpensive Chardonnay is light and flimsy. While it may be affordable, the wine is nothing at all like most others. This wine presents the true and classical Chardonnay aromas of apple, pear, citrus and tropical fruits but also displays a positive nut-like aroma. In the mouth these aromas give way to tropical fruits and melon, perfectly combined with a light, mild oak. It's a delightful wine that can serve as a mealtime beverage or as an aperitif.”

- B. & S. Bodenstein

Wine Enthusiast “Best Buys” - August 1, 2007

84 POINTS & BEST BUY

“An entry-level wine, pleasingly round and soft, with enough vanilla, melon and tropical fruit flavors to merit commendation. Could use a touch more crispness, but at this price, who’s complaining?”

Colorado Wine News [Denver, CO] “Australia” - July 1, 2007

“... has a nose of toast, vanilla and Brach’s caramels before light apple and pear flavors.”

- H. Baer

Santé “Santé Selections” - July 1, 2007

“Medium bodied with clean aromas of apple, banana, and pineapple; tart, clean, and vibrant finish. Crunchy curried shrimp.”

Wine Lovers Page “Bucko’s New Releases - Summer 2007”

- June 1, 2007

“This straightforward, lemon-colored wine offers citrus and green apple aromas, with sweet tropical fruit and pear flavors.”

- R. Buckner

The Hutchinson News [Hutchinson, KS] - April 18, 2007

“Wine of the Week”

“It is an outstanding $7 wine, from southeastern Australia. It delivers a clean, pure and simple version of this varietal, with none of the heavy or overripe flavors that can creep into Australian chardonnay. It’s on the light side, with the typical chardonnay flavors of lemon, apple, nuts and spice. Restaurants should check out this widely available brand. It’s a happy-hour kind of chardonnay. Serve with: crab dip, fried calamari, buffalo wings.”

- M. Dresser
