

2006 RED LEXIA

ACCOLADES

Sante Magazine* “Rose” - October 1, 2007

“Aromas of cherry candy and roses. Light bodied and sweet yet balanced with a slightly tart finish. Sweet and sour dishes; spicy Asian fare; fruity desserts and Zabaglione.”

Milwaukee Journal Sentinel* [Milwaukee, WI] “Sweet Possibilities in Red” - March 1, 2007

“From Australia, it’s refreshing and light-bodied with a crisp finish. The color is dark pink, not red. Serve chilled, as an aperitif or try it with Asian fare.”

- A. Schamberg

Creative Loafing* [Tampa, FL] “Sweets for Your Sweetie”

- February 2, 2007

“The sweeter red brother of the White Lexia, complete with the lovely lilac smell. More red fruit... think strawberry sangria with watermelon Jolly Ranchers floating in it. Fun to trick red wine fans into drinking a sweet wine.”

- T. Eason
