

2006 RIESLING

ACCOLADES

Wine Lovers Page* “October 2007 Releases” - October 31, 2007

“Soft, off-dry and passable for the tariff, I'd enjoy this one early on for the lemon-lime and melon highlights.”

- R. Buckner

Wallhalla Mountaineer* “Refreshing Riesling and Sizzling Spices - A Perfect Pairing” - October 25, 2007

Wine Spectator* “Australia White” - October 15, 2007

85 POINTS

“Soft, with a sweet edge to the apricot and pear flavors, lingering gently. Drink now.”

- H. Steiman

Colorado Wine News* [Denver, CO] “Australia” - October 1, 2007

BEST BUY

“...has pleasant sweet grapefruit and floral aromas before flavors of grapefruit, grapefruit peel, and apricot which are soft but laced with brisk acidity. It finishes long and medium-broad. Serve well chilled with food. Well put together.”

- H. Baer

Sante Magazine* “Riesling” - October 1, 2007

“Semisweet Riesling with a floral bouquet, mild minerality and predominant pear. Medium to full bodied with a lasting finish and subdued tannins. Thai and other spicy foods.”

Koeppel On Wine* “Refrigerator Wine” - September 23, 2007

GOOD

“Well, this is nice enough; it offers what it ought to in the way of peach-pear-melon scents and flavors with those touches of lychee and rubber eraser, all followed by limestone and chalk in the finish, but these elements are far more subdued than they ought to be, leaving an impression of a wine that's pleasant bordering on innocuous.”

- F. Koeppel

The Detroit News* [Detroit, MI] “Three Sips for Summer”

- August 2, 2007

“Floral tones and gentle sweetness are complemented by crisp acidity, melon notes, pink grapefruit and minerality. It's the first Riesling for this popular Australian producer.”

- S. Silfven

Statesman Journal* [Salem, OR] “Fight Summer Heat with Pinot Grigio” - July 18, 2007

“Since we're on the subject of light and easygoing, why not riesling? First a lean, dry one, the Alice White, 2006 South Eastern Australia Riesling, $7...It starts off with lovely aromas of apricot and nectarine. The nice crisp, tight body is held aloft by delicious peach flavors and bright floral notes. Skewer some shrimp and toss them on the barby -- perfect with this wine.”

- R. Mayfield
